

Dr. Kenneth Tan is currently Director of Corporate Strategy for Telstra. He has over 8 years of strategic management consulting with A. T. Kearney and Booz Allen & Hamilton. His range of sector experience includes financial services, energy, airlines, telecommunications and manufacturing – primarily telecommunications in the past 5 years. Dr. Tan lead a broad range of initiatives, including corporate strategy development, organization design, market entry / product launch, technology transformation and technology-led strategy, M&A due diligence, shared services, alliance establishment and management, and strategic sourcing.